TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR ADMISSION AND BASIC RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The annual fee at Darul Uloom London is payable in three instalments before the start of each of the three terms of the year. The annual fee is revised each year as set out in our documentation under 'Fees'. In addition to the obligatory fees, parents are encouraged to contribute generously to help the school. These monies will be received as donations. All fees and donations paid are non refundable should a pupil fail to complete a term. This is irrespective of the reason for leaving and also applies in the event that he be expelled by the school.
2. Parents and guardians are expected to demonstrate their commitment to the education process by taking on responsibility for the whole school community by using their skills and aptitude in practical ways which contribute to the School, its students, teachers and administrators.
3. The school maintains strict adherence to basic Islamic principles of good conduct, behaviour and respect. Above all, students are expected to respect teachers, staff members and fellow students. Students are to examine and observe the rules of the school. A copy of the full rules will be made available to each student on admission. Students who break the spirit of the rules by inappropriate conduct will be cautioned and the school retains the right to expel or exclude any student on the basis of continued misconduct. The following are key rules and regulations of the school:
 - i. The student is to dress in the school uniform which is all white tunics (long white shirts)
 - ii. The student is to maintain his hair in equal length in accordance with Sunnah (Teachings of the Prophet)
 - iii. Students are expected to be punctual in offering the five (5) daily prayers
 - iv. Should a student cause any damage to the school's property, parents or guardians are to be held responsible for compensation including full costs of repair
 - v. Students are not permitted to leave the school's premises except during vacations or in the case of a genuine emergency. A student may obtain permission to leave the premises on producing a letter from his parent or guardian or a proof of a medical appointment
 - vi. Any student leaving the premises, even for a short period of time, must notify the supervisor or teacher concerned. Any student going out of school without permission will be cautioned.
 - vii. Absence for a period of (over) two weeks or more will result in expulsion. (, except at the school's discretion with respect to specific circumstances.)
 - viii. The school retains the sole right to expel or exclude students who breach rules on a regular basis. There will be no recourse from expulsion except at the discretion of the school. The school's decision in such cases will be final and students will have no legal remedy against expulsion in such cases
 - ix. Darul Uloom expects students to aspire to academic excellence in National Curriculum and Islamic studies. Students are expected to observe and act upon the lesson timetable. Attendance at all classes is mandatory.
 - x. Students are expected and encouraged to follow the Holy Sharia and Sunnah of our beloved Prophet (Peace be upon him) in all aspects of life particular in prayers, dress and social affairs
 - xi. Smoking, stealing, shaving and trimming of beard(s), missing prayers are strictly against the spirit of the school's rules and are deemed to be grounds for expulsion
 - xii. The use of mobile phones is not allowed on the school's premises
 - xiii. Darul Uloom reserves the right to alter, add to or amend the rules and regulations as and when necessary
